Dear Dr Srinivasan,

Thank you so much for your message. While dealing with the loss, we do hope that his vision and contributions will give us the strength to carry forward his legacy in whatever small way we can.

With warm regards

Nitya

Dear Prof Rao,

Deeply saddened to learn of your father's passing away. My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. He was a transformative visionary. His vision and courage transformed the lives and livelihoods of millions of people in our country and beyond – and will remain an inspiration for generations to come. May he rest in peace.

Kind Regards

Srinivasan
