

The father of agricultural revolution is no more. I am deeply saddened but equally motivated today to do something towards nation food security today. Deepest condolences to the entire nation and the family.

Dr Rachie Diana, Microlab, Chennai