

The country had lost one of its greatest sons. It is a very sad day.

Dr Swaminathan ensured that India, one of the most population countries in the world became self sufficient in food grains. He was a visionary. He also saw the negative consequences of chemical agriculture and advocated “evergreen revolution”/

T Vijay Kumar